

Clinical Assistant Professor (JOB#11824)
Arizona State University
Department of Psychology

The Department of Psychology invites applications for a full-time Clinical Assistant Professor to assist with the development and coordination of the department's master's program in Applied Behavior Analysis (MS ABA). This benefits-eligible, non-tenure eligible appointment is renewable on a fiscal year basis contingent upon satisfactory performance, availability of resources, and the needs of the unit. Anticipated start date is July 2017.

The successful candidate will be expected to: assist in maintaining the MS ABA program's fieldwork training requirement by working with ABA agencies to identify, develop, and coordinate practicum placement sites that meet program needs; coordinate student matches to practicum placement positions; develop and teach the practicum course(s) as appropriate; coordinate and maintain program BACB approved course sequence distinction; serve on committees relevant to the MS ABA program; maintain program handbook and other resources as appropriate. Successful candidate must have the ability to obtain a valid Arizona driver's license prior to start date.

Minimum Qualifications include:

- Doctorate in behavior analysis or closely related field from an accredited university at the time of hire
- Must be a Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) and state-licensed behavior analyst or state license-eligible, or able to obtain within 3 months of hire
- Experience supervising ABA service providers and conducting case review staff meetings
- Extensive knowledge of BACB standards, guidelines, and certification/credential processes including BACB's Fourth Edition Task List and Fourth Edition Content Allocation

Desirable Qualifications:

- Teaching experience in a university setting
- Three years supervisory and ABA provider experience across diverse clientele
- Demonstrated success meeting the needs of diverse student populations or reaching out to diverse communities

To apply, please submit to adam.hahs@asu.edu as a single pdf document the following materials: 1) a cover letter which describes your interest in the position and how prior knowledge and experience meet the minimum and desired qualifications, 2) curriculum vitae; 3) evidence of teaching experience; and 4) contact information for three professional references (names, email addresses and phone numbers) who may be contacted at a later stage of the search. Please include "Clinical Assistant Professor JOB# 11824" in the email subject line. This is a paperless search; only electronic applications will be considered. Initial review of complete applications will begin on January 12, 2017; if not filled, review will continue every week thereafter until the search is closed. A background check is required for employment.
